University Service

I. Faculty Athletics Representative to the SEC and the NCAA (2005-2009)

In April of 2005, President Todd appointed me to a four-year term as the University of Kentucky's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) for the SEC and the NCAA. The FAR serves as the liaison between the University's academic concerns and its athletic interests. Specifically, the FAR's responsibilities are six-fold:

1. Advise the president on matters in which academics and athletics intersect.
 2. Oversee academic and institutional integrity and compliance.
 - Serve as the president's "eyes and ears" in the athletic department
 3. Serve as a delegate to the NCAA and the SEC at deliberative and legislative meetings.
 4. Develop, assess, and propose new SEC/NCAA academic legislation and policies that protect the mission of higher education and promote student-athlete welfare.
 - Since 2005, these proposals have included missed-class policy, progress-towards-graduation, illicit drug use, minimum GPA, racial and gender equality, and identifying fraudulent high and prep schools.
 5. Advise coaches and athletic administrators.
 6. Champion student-athlete rights.
 - Observe on-campus practices and away-travel competitions and/or tournaments with all 22 NCAA teams.
- Faculty Athletics Representative Ex Officio Responsibilities:
 - Member of the University of Kentucky's Athletic Board of Directors (2005-2009)
 - The Board's responsibility is to oversee all significant decisions made by the Athletic Department.
 - Chair of the Athletic Integrity Committee (2005-2009)
 - The committee's charge is to oversee the academic integrity of the University's athletic program. The committee members include the provost and the directors of UK's financial aid, admissions, and academic and tutorial services.
 - Member of the Frank G. Ham Societas Virtutis Committee (2005-2009)
 - The Societas Virtutis award is the athletic department's most prestigious honor and is given to the student athletes that have consistently demonstrated virtue in the community and excellence in the classroom.
 - Member of the Student-Athlete Welfare Committee (2006-2009)
 - The committee, working independently of athletics, oversees all issues that pertain to the welfare and wellbeing of UK's student athletes.
 - Chair of the Student-Athlete Transfer Appeal Committee (2006-2009)
 - The committee, working independently of athletics, handles all appeals by student athletes on transfer issues.
 - Lyman T. Johnson Awards Selection Committee (2005-2009)
 - The committee selects African American Student Athletes and Alumni for the L. T. Johnson Award. This award is given annually to African Americans who exemplify service, scholarship, and integrity.

II. Service to the University

- Elected to the University of Kentucky's Faculty Senate (2011-2014)
- Member of the Faculty Senate's Academic Programs Committee (2011-2014)

- The Senate's Academic Programs Committee (SAPC) is charged with recommending action to the Senate on all new academic programs approved by the Undergraduate Council, the Graduate Council, or the Academic Council for the Medical Center. Specifically, the SAPC shall review the academic excellence, the need, and the impact, desirability, and priority of the new academic program in relation to other programs.
- Academic Area Advisory Committee for the Social Sciences (appointed by President Todd).
 - Responsible for reviewing tenure and promotion cases in the Social Sciences and making recommendations to the University Provost and President (Fall 2010-Spring 2012).
 - Appointed to a second term by President Capilouto (Fall of 2012 to Present)
- Review Committee for the Division of Student Affairs (appointed by Provost Subbaswamy).
 - Reviewed all aspects of the Division of Student Affairs prior to search for the new Vice President and establish clear outcome goals for UK's Top 20 Initiative. (Spring 2009)
